Now in its thirteenth year, "Battle at the Beach" is the ultimate in summer high school passing league tournaments, featuring some of the finest high school football programs in Southern California. Hosted by Edison High School in Huntington Beach, this showcase event will be held this year on Saturday, July 9th, starting at 9:00 AM. Battle at the Beach is all about outstanding competition, good food and a full day of football fun in a surfside setting.

Sixteen high school teams will compete in Edison's Tournament Playoff format. Tournament playoff games start at 1:00 PM, with the Championship game for each division held at 3:00 PM.

The following high schools are scheduled to play in the 2011 edition of the Battle at the Beach: Carlsbad, Centennial, Edison, Foothill, J. Serra, La Habra, Long Beach Poly, Los Alamitos, Mater Dei, Notre Dame, Oaks Christian, South Hills, St. John Bosco, Tesoro, Valencia (Valencia) and Westlake.

Tournament t-shirts and tank tops will be available for sale

The Snack Bar will be open all day along with Sweet Lou's Rolling BBQ trailer
